THE RACE GOES GREEN

Since 2017, with consensus from our sponsors and partners, the race has been stepping up its print waste reduction activities, including Vouchers/ Flyers insertion in the Race Kit. Instead, we have gradually converted brochures into online forms to bring convenience for our runners as well as reduce printing waste at the event.

At the same time, the race tries to minimize the negative effects that an event can have on the venue area by implementing practical measures such as: setting up numerous trash cans to ensure that garbage is collected in the right place; using environmentally friendly materials such as paper cups and organic bags instead of plastic bottles and plastic bags; and recycling used backdrops into products that can be used every day to reduce waste into the environment. We constantly encourage our partners and all participants, in particular, to join hands and raise environmental consciousness directly at the event.

This digital Race Guide is also one of the actions that will assist us in achieving our aim of a green Da Nang Marathon.

The challenge for litter runners aged 3 to 10 to conquer themselves across a 1.5-kilometer course.

The race is not only a running track that allows children to have fun and thrilling experiences, but it also instills in them a passion for running and other sports that are beneficial to their health and physical fitness.

The children will be more delighted and motivated to run if they are accompanied by a companion who is also their father, mother, or relatives. These early steps will assist children in overcoming their own limitations; each tiny effort will pay off abundantly at the finish line.

This is also an opportunity for the entire family to spend a fantastic weekend in the gorgeous coastline city - Danang. Let's join on March 19, 2022, and conquer the victory at Bien Dong Park in Da Nang.
